

e-certificates and e-reports

Terms and conditions of use for registered users

1. The Federal Institute of Metrology (METAS) issues certificates and reports in electronic form (e-certificates and e-reports).
2. For registered users METAS provides electronic documents available to be retrieved via an encrypted website (service).
3. Anyone registering to use the METAS service (users) accept the present terms and conditions of use.
4. The user is given a user name and password for the retrieval of electronic documents. He is responsible for safeguarding the user name and password. In particular, it is up to him to decide to whom he will make them available.
5. Electronic documents retrieved with the user name and password of a user registered at METAS, are deemed to have been delivered. The user is responsible for archiving the retrieved electronic documents.
6. METAS keeps retrieved electronic documents available for the user. No warranty is provided for this additional service. In particular, METAS warrants no minimum period of availability.
7. METAS is entitled to change or discontinue this service. It will inform users about major changes or discontinuation.
