1. Overview

1.1 About this document

This User's Guide explains the various steps in the notification procedure.

In this User's Guide, fictitious data are used and shown. Where real data are visible, they have been greyed out to ensure data protection.

Gender-neutral formulation: in the interests of greater legibility, no gender-specific differentiation is made (e.g. he/she, his/her etc.). All role titles used are intended to refer to both genders.

1.2 General Information

Only one account (profile) may be created for each legal entity. Employers may only submit notification forms for their own employees

Within the framework of the online registration procedure, the following persons can work for a maximum of three months or ninety days during the calendar year. No foreign nationals permit is required; it suffices if you register online.

- ▶ EU/EFTA nationals taking up employment in Switzerland
- ▶ Employees posted by a company domiciled in one of the EU/EFTA member states, regardless of the employee's nationality. Third-state nationals are required to have been legally working in an EU/EFTA member state for at least 12 months prior to being posted to Switzerland
- ▶ Independent service providers from an EU/EFTA member state domiciled in an EU/EFTA member state

1.2.1 United Kingdom (Brexit)

Following the UK's exit from the EU and the end of the transition period on 31 December 2020, the Agreement on the Free Movement of Persons (AFMP) no longer applies with the United Kingdom. From 1 January 2021, UK citizens are no longer citizens of the EU.

On 25 February 2019, Switzerland and the UK signed an agreement on citizens' acquired rights, designed to protect the acquired rights of Swiss citizens living in the UK and of UK citizens living in Switzerland. The agreement accords fewer rights on service provision in Switzerland than the AFMP.

On 14 December 2020, Switzerland and the UK signed an agreement on mobility of service providers. This Services Mobility Agreement has been applied since 1 January 2021 and remains valid until 31 December 2025. It governs the reciprocal, facilitated access to the Swiss labour market for service providers from the UK for up to 90 days in any calendar year. Service providers are still required to complete the notification procedure. The new rules are similar to the notification procedure applicable to service providers from an EU/EFTA state.

Service providers from the UK, regardless of whether they have acquired rights, can benefit from this agreement and the favourable conditions for providing services in Switzerland.

The requirements to be met in the notification procedure depend on the type of activity set out below:

- 1) Notification procedure for short-term activities (employed status)
- 2) Notification procedure for service provision (self-employed or posted worker)

1) Notification procedure for short-term activities (employed status):

UK citizens taking up employment in Switzerland for a maximum period of three months can no longer use the notification procedure. These citizens need to have a work permit under the terms of the Foreign Nationals and Integration Act (FNIA).

The employer in Switzerland must make an application to the competent authorities.

2) Notification procedure for service provision:

Service provision from the UK:

Service providers, posted workers and self-employed UK citizens based in the UK are still required to complete the notification procedure. The new rules are similar to the notification procedure applicable to service providers from an EU/EFTA state.

Citizens of an EU/EFTA state or third country, regardless of nationality, can only be posted to Switzerland if integrated long-term in the regular labour market in the UK (either for at least twelve months with a temporary residence permit or with a settlement permit).

2.1 Self-employed service provider

To create a profile, please follow the steps under section 5.1.3 and select the country «United Kingdom (AFMP)».

Please note that it is no longer possible for a self-employed service provider with UK nationality living in an EU/EFTA member state to provide services in Switzerland via the notification procedure. These service providers must apply to the local canton for a work permit.

Self-employed service providers who are EU/EFTA nationals resident in the UK can continue to provide services if the following two conditions are met: The service provision has started no later than 31 December 2020 and a written contract has been concluded before that date. The date of the written contract must be entered in the comments field of the declaration. If this information is missing, the notification will be refused.

Once you have created your profile, please proceed to Section 6.3.

2.2 Service provision by posted workers

To create a profile, please follow the procedure under Section 5.1.2 and select the country «United Kingdom (AFMP)».

Once you have created your profile, please proceed to Section 6.2.

2. Information at a glance

Which information / document is required for notification?

Depending on the category (employment/provision of service¹), you will be asked to provide different information on the online notification form. Make sure to have information/documents ready:

Short-term employment with a Swiss employer² (Chapter 6.1)

- ▶ From worker: ID card/passport so that you can enter personal details, information about the professional skills and activities to be carried out in Switzerland
- ▶ From Swiss employer: Name of person whom the authorities may contact for information
- ▶ Job registration requirement: Under Article 21a FNIA and Articles 53a-53e RecO employers must register job vacancies from 1 July 2018. The registration requirement applies to occupations with a national unemployment rate of 8% or more. Employers must register vacancies in these occupations with the regional unemployment office (RAV) and are only permitted to advertise them otherwise after five working days. In addition, employers must invite to an interview candidates whose file has been sent to them by the RAV office within three days and who they consider suitable for the vacancy. Further information including a list of the occupations subject to registration is available at Job registration requirement \(ar-beit.swiss\). Any person who violates the registration requirement is liable to punishment under Art. 117a FNIA

Posted workers (Chapter 6.2)

- ▶ From worker: ID card/passport so that you can enter personal details, information about the place and duration of work, social insurance number in the country of residence, wage to be paid during the period of work in Switzerland, information about the professional skills and activities to be carried out in Switzerland, and (in the case of third-state nationals) the residence permit issued to the worker in the country from which he/she is being sent.
- ▶ Contact address in Switzerland: Address of company, contact person incl. tel. and/or e-mail address.
- ▶ From company sending the worker: name of contact person at company.

Self-employed service provider (Chapter 6.3)

- ▶ ID card/passport so that you can enter personal details of the self-employed service provider, information about the company and information about the activities to be carried out in Switzerland
- ▶ Contact address in Switzerland: Address of company, contact person incl. tel. and/or e-mail

¹ Workers fall into one of two categories: self-employed service providers and posted workers

² Swiss employers are responsible for the notification, which must take place no later than one day prior to commencement of work.

What do you need to bear in mind?

Employers that violate the provisions of the Posted Workers Act (PWA, SR 823.20), particularly the provisions concerning the notification requirement and Swiss salary and working conditions, may be liable to fines. The following matters are particularly important to bear in mind:

Emergency arrangements - exceptions to 8-day prior notice period

If you wish to post a worker to Switzerland or provide services in Switzerland, you must notify the authorities 8 days beforehand. In emergency cases, work may begin within the 8-day period but no earlier than on the day of notification. Emergency cases³ must be announced and explained when registering (Field «Comment» in the online notification {see chapters 6.2.5 no. 3 and 6.3.5 no. 3})

The reasons justifying the emergency case will be recognised by the cantonal authorities if the following prerequisites are cumulatively met:

- ▶ The work to be done addresses unexpected occurrence of damage and is intended to prevent further damage
- ▶ The work to be done is carried out immediately, generally no later than three calendar days (incl. Sunday and public holidays) after the damage took place

The need to carry out work within the 8-day period may be recognised on an exceptional basis in the following cases:

- ▶ if absolutely essential machinery, equipment, transport facilities and vehicles require repairs following serious disruptions or damage
- ▶ if the aim is to restore business operations that have been disrupted as a direct result of force majeure or to prevent such business operations from being disrupted by such circumstances
- ▶ if the aim is to prevent or restore disruptions of power, heat or water supply or private or public transport
- ▶ if indispensable and urgently necessary measures must be taken to preserve the lives and health of people and animals and prevent environmental damage
- ▶ if work needs to be rescheduled earlier because the branch of activity is dependent upon weather conditions (e.g. abrupt change of weather conditions, such as sudden drop in temperature following extensive period of heat). The work to be performed can only be carried out under specific weather conditions and postponement of work would be technically impossible or economically unviable despite adequate protective measures (e.g. the sealing of all types of joints during very cold temperatures)

³ Additional information concerning recognition of emergency situations can be found in the Directives and Explanations of the Freedom of Movement Introduction Ordinance (FMIO, SR 142.203) FMIO Directives Weisungen VEP (in German), no. 3.3.5

Subsequent changes to notification (see chapters 6.1.6, 6.2.6 and 6.3.6)

All changes must immediately be reported to the competent cantonal authority (or at the very latest prior to commencement of work, or if the duration of work needs to be shortened or extended, prior to the change being made to the reported duration of work).

If the notification was made online, then the competent authority must be notified of the change by e-mail and with reference to the previous notification (under no circumstances should a new online notification be made). The following changes to the notification must be reported:

- ▶ Postponement of the period of work to a later date
- ▶ Shortening or lengthening of the duration of work
- ▶ Interruption of work
- ▶ cancellation of the notification

A new online notification must be made in the following cases:

- ▶ Postponement of the period of work to a later date
- ▶ Registration of a replacement worker (e.g. in the case of illness)
- ▶ Registration of additional workers
- ▶ Resumption of work following interruption; follow-up work (maintenance or satisfying warranty requirements) for the same project.

The new notification must be made no later than the first day of work and must include reference to a previously submitted notification. In the above-mentioned cases, a new notification will not give rise to a new 8-day prior notification period; the date when the first notification was submitted will remain valid for calculation purposes.

Submitting a notification for owners (directors and/or partners) of a company (see chapters 6.2.4 and 6.3)

When submitting a notification for several owners of a company (for example a limited liability company), we recommend you clarify beforehand whether the owner is legally subordinate to the employer (i.e. the company) or bears the main business and/or economic risk with regard to the company in question. This, among other factors, determines whether a person who wishes to provide a service in Switzerland should be notified as a posted worker or a self-employed person.

- 1. Position of subordination: If the person is employed by the company or in a position similar to an employee, we advise you classify the person as an employee and notify them as a 'posted worker' of the company. The same applies, under certain circumstances, to owners or shareholders of a private company or stock corporation, and to 'third-party managers' (i.e. managers who own no or only marginal company shares in a limited liability company) if a position of subordination exists or prevails.
- 2. Responsibility for business or economic risk: If the owner and/or director of a limited liability company bears the main business or economic risk, and if that person is not in a position of subordination in terms of an employment or employment-like relationship vis-a-vis the company, we advise you notify the person as a self-employed service provider.
Only one person may be mentioned in the notification as a self-employed service provider. If the conditions mentioned in point 2 apply to further owners, they must be notified (for technical reasons) as 'posted workers' of the company. However, in the 'Notification comments' field (at the bottom of the page), you may indicate that the individuals mentioned as posted workers are also owners of the company and are therefore self-employed.

The cantons are responsible for verifying each case. If you have any questions, it is advisable to contact the cantonal authority responsible before submitting the notification.

Good to know:

See confirmations. Our web application provides a confirmation message once your notification has been reviewed by the cantonal authority. You will receive an e-mail message as soon as your notification has been processed and confirmed. Beneath the menu See confirmations you have the possibility of viewing, downloading and/or printing confirmation messages.
